Funding Your Education

Tuck provides financial assistance to students who lack sufficient personal resources to finance their MBA education. Although the Tuck Financial Aid Office is committed to identifying financial resources for admitted students who require assistance to meet the cost of the MBA program, applicants are also expected to take responsibility for the financial aspects of earning an MBA. Documents can be faxed, emailed, or mailed to the financial aid office. For detailed information and frequently asked questions, please go to www.tuck.dartmouth.edu/admissions.

Application for Scholarship

If you wish to be considered for scholarships, please submit the following documents by the deadline below. The complete application for scholarships consists of the following:

US Citizens, Permanent Residents and International Citizens

- Application for Tuck School of Business Scholarships
- Brief Biographical Essay

If you will be applying to Tuck through the Consortium for Graduate Study in Management, you will also need to complete the Application for Tuck School of Business Scholarships. Students who do not receive scholarships in their first year should not expect to receive scholarships in the second year.

Students will not be considered for scholarships if application is not received by the deadline.

Educational Loans

If you wish to be considered for financial aid in the form of educational loans, please submit the following documents by the deadline for your application round below:

U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents

- Signed copies of your 2009 federal income tax return. Copies of schedules, W2's, and state tax returns are not required.
- Completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please file an electronic FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The Federal Student Aid Center telephone number is 800-4-FEDAID (800-433-3243). Dartmouth's code is 002573.

International Citizens
